

LE BOURG, 69620 MOIRÉ, FRANCE

GÎTE SITUATED IN THE HEART OF THE BEAUJOLAIS - SLEEPS FOUR/FIVE.

La Folie is a spacious two bedroom house in the courtyard of our small chateau.

Moiré is a quiet village in the Pierre Dorée region of the Beaujolais noted for its beautiful honey coloured limestone. There are wide reaching views over the surrounding vineyards to Mont Blanc in the East and les Monts du Tarare in the West. Lyon with all its attractions is 35km South-East.

The neighbouring villages include Bagnols with its world renowned chateau hotel and Oingt, a medieval hill-top village recently classified as one of France's most beautiful villages. The local market town, Le Bois d'Oingt (3km) has shops, doctor, vet, bank, post office and everything you will need for a relaxing holiday.

Guests at La Folie may use our 11m pool, trampoline, bikes, table-tennis, boules and barbecue. Wine-tasting, road and mountain biking, pony-trekking, walking, hot-air ballooning, golf, music and art festivals are some of the distractions available locally. There are numerous restaurants nearby ranging from good local food to Michelin starred gastronomy.

La Folie is open plan on the ground floor. A terracotta tiled floor, marble fireplace, piano and sofa in the living area and a new well equipped kitchen (large fridge, oven, microwave, hob, dishwasher, double sink, good storage) and pine dining table (facing the double door to the courtyard and gardens) provide a spacious, relaxed and comfortable space to return to after an arduous aperitif watching the sun slip behind the distant hills. There is an adjoining downstairs lloo and washing machine for the practical matters. There is central heating and a wood burning stove for the cooler months of the year.

Up the stone stairs and you find the two bedrooms and bathroom. The main bedroom has a large double bed and the second bedroom has two singles and a cot. A fold-out bed is available if required.

Friendly dogs and children are welcome to play with ours.
